Dear Sir:

I am a professional historian working on a book about the controversy that developed between President Truman and Douglas MacArthur during the Korean War.

I write to ask review and declassification, under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act and the currently governing Executive Order, of any information in your files, for the period 1 January 1950 - 1 September 1951 that specifically concerns General of the Army Douglas MacArthur.

I am not interested in reports by him. Rather my concern is any reports from CIA sources about him.

I would appreciate your prompt response, as the law requires, to this request.

Sincerely,
